DKSH Partners with Hygiena® to Provide Food Safety and Health Diagnostics Solutions in the Philippines

DKSH has formed an exclusive partnership with Hygiena®, a global leader in food safety and health diagnostics solutions, to strengthen its presence in the Philippines. Through this collaboration, DKSH will leverage its market expansion services to enhance access to Hygiena's innovative solutions, supporting food safety and healthcare standards across the country.

Philippines, March 14, 2024 – DKSH Business Unit Technology has announced a new, exclusive partnership with Hygiena, a prominent provider in rapid microbial detection, monitoring and identification solutions. Under this agreement, DKSH will offer comprehensive market analysis, marketing, sales, distribution and after-sales services, ensuring Hygiena's cutting-edge products reach key industries in the Philippines.

Hygiena's products, including the ATP Cleaning Verification systems, are designed to support stringent hygiene standards and ensure safety across various sectors. This partnership aims to expand Hygiena's market reach and reinforce its brand reputation by leveraging DKSH's extensive local expertise and distribution network. DKSH's services will cover key industries, including the food and beverage industry, healthcare facilities, the hospitality sector, pharmaceutical manufacturing, water quality testing, cosmetics and personal care industries, transportation and logistics, as well as educational institutions.

"We are thrilled to partner with DKSH to broaden our market reach in the Philippines. DKSH's proven track record and deep understanding of local markets make them the perfect partner for us," said K. Surada Ketruang, Regional Sales Manager, SEA at Hygiena. "Together, we will deliver our innovative diagnostic solutions to a wider audience, ensuring safety and compliance across essential sectors."

Camilo V. Umlas, General Manager, Philippines, commented: "We are thrilled to have been appointed by Hygiena to be their strategic partner in the Philippines. Hygiena's strength in food safety products complement our product offering and strong presence in the food segment. This exciting addition to our portfolio aligns perfectly with our commitment to providing advanced solutions that prioritize food safety and innovation. We are confident that this new partnership will further enhance our reputation as a trusted leader in the industry."
